

Personal Space Practice

Social skills

about one arm's length

The basic rule:

Stay about one arm's length away from someone unless they invite you closer family hugs and quick high-fives are different!

Signs someone might need more space:

- They step back or lean away
- They look away or avoid eye contact
- They say "back up" or "give me room"
- Their arms cross or their body turns away

Practice round

Who I practiced with:

How did it go?

☐ Easy!

☐ A little tricky

☐ Forgot this time