

Sharing and Turn-Taking

Social skills

Practice the words, then practice the waiting.

Words that help

- "Can I have a turn when you're done?"
- "Your turn now -- I'll wait."
- "I'll share this one, you take that one."
- "Can we take turns with this?"

Today's practice round

Tips for parents

- Practice with low-stakes items first (blocks, crayons) before it matters, like a favorite toy.
- Narrate out loud while you play: "my turn... your turn" -- it helps the idea click.
- Praise the waiting itself, separate from whether the game or activity went their way.
