Irregular Past Tense Verbs

Verbs & Tenses

Complete each sentence by writing the past tense form of the verb in parentheses.

Regular verbs add -ed to show the past tense (walk -> walked).
Irregular verbs do not follow this rule and change spelling completely in the past tense (run -> ran, eat -> ate).

1. Yesterday, Sam _____ (fly) a colorful kite at the park.
2. Emma _____ (swim) across the pool in five seconds.
3. We _____ (see) a bright rainbow after the rain stopped.
4. Dad _____ (make) delicious pancakes for breakfast this morning.
5. The teacher _____ (give) each student a new notebook.
